Pasco Tax Collector Mike Fasano Announces the Retirement of Patty Snitker

Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano announces the retirement of 21 year employee Patty Snitker. Patty is a familiar smiling face to everyone who has visited the West Pasco Government Center's tax collector's office. She worked as a customer service representative and has helped countless taxpayers during her two-plus decades on the front line.

"Patty has been a great asset to our organization and to the public she served," West Pasco Government Center Manager Clare Casey states. "We will all miss her and wish her well as she goes forward into her retirement."

"It is always hard to see someone with the knowledge and expertise that Patty has gained over the years leave our family," Tax Collector Mike Fasano states. "However, she has definitely earned the opportunity to join the ranks of the retired. Even though she will be greatly missed we have no doubt she will soon be enjoying life as a retiree. On behalf of the entire organization we wish her well."

During a farewell ceremony Patty was presented with a plaque commemorating her career with the Pasco County Tax Collector. The plaque states: "In appreciation and recognition of your courteous, professional, and dedicated service to the Citizens of Pasco County 1993 – 2014."
